

SUNDAY, November 13, 1988

8:00-8:30 AM Continental breakfast

8:30-9:45 AM Dialectic on "Conceptions of Risk Taking," organized by PAUL SCHOEMAKER, University of Chicago, with RICHARD MEYER, Harvard University

9:45-10:15 AM Coffee Break

10:15-11:45 AM Symposium on "Why Should We Study Gambling Behavior when Gamblers Violate Our Theories?" organized by WILLEM WAGENAAR, The University of Leiden

Participants are:

WILLEM WAGENAAR: "The Choice among Bets Paradigm
as a Cover Story in Decision Making Studies"

LOLA LOPES, University of Wisconsin at Madison:
"Musings on Amusement and the Uses of Money"

MAYA BAR-HILLEL, The Hebrew University:
Discussant

11:45-1:00 PM Luncheon

1:00-2:00 PM Chair's Address: KENNETH HAMMOND, University of Colorado, speaking on "The Science of Applying Knowledge;" introduced by ROBYN DAWES, Carnegie-Mellon University

2:00-3:00 PM MARK MACHINA, University of California-San Diego, speaking on "Dynamic Consistency and Non-Expected Utility Models of Choice under Uncertainty;" introduced by R. DUNCAN LUCE, University of California-Irvine

3:00-3:30 PM HILLEL EINHORN YOUNG INVESTIGATOR AWARD WINNER, introduced by GARY McCLELLAND, University of Colorado

3:30 PM Adjourn

REVISED PROGRAM

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE SOCIETY FOR JUDGMENT AND DECISION MAKING

November 12-13, 1988

The Midland Hotel, Huleberg Room
Chicago, IL

SATURDAY, November 12

1:45-2:00 PM Opening comments

THOMAS S. WALLSTEN, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

2:00-3:15 PM In memory of Clyde Coombs

Comments by WILLIAM GOLDSTEIN, University of Chicago, and ROBYN DAWES, Carnegie-Mellon University

GEORGE AVRUNIN, University of Massachusetts at Amherst, speaking on "The Structure of Conflict;"
introduced by ROBYN DAWES

3:15-3:45 PM Coffee Break

3:45-5:15 PM Symposium on Group Decision Making, organized by JAMES H. DAVIS, University of Illinois

Participants are:

JAMES H. DAVIS: "A History of Theory and Little Data"

GERALD STASSER, Miami University: "The Simulation of Collective Judgment and Information Exchange"

MICHAEL BERBAUM, Brandeis University: "Models of Mutual Influence in Interacting Groups"

5:15-6:15 PM Business Meeting

6:15-8:15 PM Reception hosted by The University of Chicago
plus a cash bar